Please provide a brief description of this internship site:

If you do not have an internship placement in mind at this time, please indicate the type of setting or political/social/cultural issues that you are interested in:

Are you fluent in any foreign languages? Please list.

Provide one letter of recommendation from a faculty member and a second letter of recommendation from either a former employer, minister, faculty member, or community member. These letters should be given to you in a sealed envelope which you will then attach to your completed application and submit all together to address on this application.

In addition to this form, please include the following in your application packet:

- Please attach a list of major campus/extracurricular activities you have been involved with during your time at this University.
- A double-spaced essay maximum of 3 pages. The following questions should shape your essay:
Tell us about your current vocational reflection and discernment process:
 - Describe any experiences of intentional vocational reflection you have had. These may be experiences you've had in a class, in a religious or spiritual setting, or personal experiences.
 - How will this summer internship experience assist you in reflecting on a life of service?

Tell us about your interest in nonprofit work:

- Why are you interested in nonprofit work?
- In what ways have your classes at WFU compelled you to think about nonprofit work?
- How will this internship enhance your post-graduate career plans?
- Give an example where you worked successfully with someone from a different racial or economic background than your own.
- What skills have your experiences and studies provided that strengthen your potential as a public servant?
